HIUS 151: AMERICAN LEGAL HISTORY SINCE THE CIVIL WAR

The reading assignments for the course are from one textbook and a series of monographs that deal with incidents that highlight particular issues covered by the course. The textbook is Melvin I. Urofsky and Paul Finkelman, A March of Liberty: A Constitutional History of the United States, vol. II. From 1877 to the Present. (identified in the syllabus as March). Since this class covers from 1865 to the present, there is also an assignment from volume I of the Urofsky and Finkelman book. It will be distributed in class as a handout.

Also assigned in the class are five monographs and one collection of essays. They are the following:

Michal R. Belknap, The Vietnam War on Trial: The My Lai Massacre and the Court-Martial of Lieutenant Calley [Vietnam War]
