Class Web site: ted.ucsd.edu. Students should check regularly on our class web site. You can send the professor mail on the site. For each class session, a discussion question will be posted on the site, and students are expected to write 2-3 sentence posts responding to the question at least ten times during the quarter. If you find a wonderful web site or link to a scanned version of one of the texts or have a film to recommend, please post this information on our site. Call the Academic Computing Office at 4-4061 or 4-2113 if you experience problems.

Holocaust Living History Workshop is a regular lecture series of local speakers in the field of Jewish history and the Holocaust. All sessions are on Wednesday afternoons at 5 pm in the Seuss room of the library. During the quarter please try to attend as most speakers will include material relevant to our course. Dates to note: April 3, April 24, May 8, May 22, June 5. Check out the Workshop web site at <http://libraries.ucsd.edu/hlhw/events.html>.

Requirements.

Please come to class even if you have not done the reading. We will need everyone present to contribute to class discussions.

The Power Point presentations in class are intended to make the class sessions more enjoyable. They are decidedly not a replacement for what is learned from consistent and disciplined reading. In-class lecture presentations are designed for the classroom only and they will not be available on our class web board.

Students will write a 10 page paper, due on May 28. Please prepare a 5 minute presentation of your essay topic, to be delivered in class at the point in the syllabus when your topic comes up. Please sign up in the class presentation notebook the date you will present, and keep to your commitment. If you wish to show a power point, please email it to the professor 24 hours before the set date and time, at dhertz@ucsd.edu.

Further instructions on the format of the essay will be discussed extensively in class. The in-class midterm will take place on May 7, and the final will be on June 11th at 11:30. Both the midterm and the final will consist of one or more essay questions, which will NOT be distributed beforehand, and some identifications.

Points toward the final grade: paper 40 points; midterm 20 points; final 30 points; web postings, attendance, and class presentation 10 points.

Essay Topics At the end of the syllabus you will find a long list of possible topics, mainly biographies and films. Visual History Archive interviews are also good topics for your essay. Other topics of your own choosing are also acceptable. If you choose a film, a novel, or a video interview, make sure to also use a serious scholarly monograph for your research.

Visual History Archive. This is a collection of 52,000 video interviews, many of which touch on the Zionist experience. If you choose to use the Archive, please make an appointment to see Dr. Susanne Hillman for guidance on how to use the Archive and which interviews might be helpful for your topic. Her office hours are Wednesdays 1-4 and her office is in the Library on the first floor. Inquire at the information desk for precise directions. Contact Dr. Hillman at 534 7661 or HLHW@ucsd.edu. Please choose an academic source to supplement your viewing experience with the interviews. Here are six questions to use in framing your essay.

One: Survivors and refugees who were active in various Zionist youth groups; Two: Survivors and refugees whose families chose to move to Palestine before 1933, from Poland, Russia or Germany; Three: Survivors and refugees whose families moved to Palestine between 1933--1943; Four: The role of the Jewish Brigades in aiding escapes from Europe during the war; five: revenge operations and the Abba Kovner controversy; Six: Survivors and refugees who fought in the 1948 war of independence.
